Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement

- All submitted papers will follow a double-blind review process. Each paper will be reviewed by at least two international reviewers who are experts in the area of the paper.
- The factors that are taken into account in review are: significance of topic, exploration of new ideas, accuracy, contribution to conference goals, readability and language.
- Paper acceptance is constrained by such legal requirements as shall then be in force regarding libel, copyright infringement and plagiarism.
- Reviewers will evaluate manuscripts for their intellectual content without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, religious belief, ethnic origin, citizenship, or political philosophy of the authors.
- Staff members will not disclose any information about a submitted manuscript to anyone other than the corresponding author, reviewers, other editorial advisers and staff members, the publisher, as appropriate.
- Fraudulent or knowingly inaccurate statements constitute unethical behavior and are unacceptable.
- The authors should ensure that they have written entirely original works, and if the authors have used the work and/or words of others that this has been appropriately cited or quoted.
- Submitting the same manuscript to more than one publication concurrently constitutes unethical publishing behavior and is unacceptable.
- Authorship should be limited to those who have made a significant contribution to the conception, design, execution, or interpretation of the reported work.
- All sources of financial support for the project should be disclosed.
